

SULTAN DECIDES TO DEFY FRANCE

Bitter Anti-Foreign Fanaticism Prevails All Over Turkey.

WAR IS IN SIGHT

French Government is Undeniably Aggressive in Forcing Its Demands.

IT MAY TAKE SMYRNA

Paris, Nov. 1.—The foreign office denies the report that Admiral Callard, who was sent yesterday with a detachment of the Mediterranean squadron to make a demonstration against Turkey, has returned to Toulon. The officials say that Callard is still proceeding eastward and cannot be communicated with before Sunday. The report that the Sultan had yielded was also denied.

A Constantinople telegram asserts that the Sultan is resolved to defy France and has ordered the defense of Solonica, Smyrna and Mitylene. A mine has been placed in the Dardanelles and preparatory orders issued for a mobilization of two army corps. The telegram further states that anti-foreign fanaticism prevails throughout Turkey.

France Takes Determined Stand. The attitude of the French government yesterday was undeniably aggressive, and, in fact, the belligerent note was so strong as to arouse a certain amount of suspicion in the minds of these familiar with diplomatic procedure. Yesterday the French foreign office confirmed the report that a division of the French Mediterranean fleet, composed of three battleships and two cruisers, under the command of Admiral Callard, had proceeded from Toulon to the Levant to make a naval demonstration against Turkey.

Admiral Callard's squadron consisted of the armored cruisers Pothuau, Chanzy, and Latouche-Tréville, the second class cruisers Du Chayla and Cassard, and the third-class cruiser Balise. The crews aggregate 2,285 men, but the vessels also carried landing parties.

Official Talks Freely. A foreign office official said today: "The squadron sailed with sealed orders, and proceeds first to a Greek port, the island of Syra, I think, where the admiral will receive definite instructions as to carrying out his sealed orders."

"I am not at liberty to say what the sealed orders are, but the seizure of the customs at Smyrna would probably be an effective way of convincing the sultan that France's patience is exhausted, and that we have decided to enforce an immediate execution of the Turkish government's engagements. We, however, are hopeful that the sultan will not compel us to go to that extreme."

"Our squadron will not reach the Greek port until Sunday. The Turkish government has thus still three days of grace, and we trust in the meantime to receive complete satisfaction."

ILLINOIS HUNTERS DEFY GAME LAWS

They Come Across the Wisconsin Border to Hunt Game Without Procuring a License.

Madison, Wis., November 1.—(Special)—Illinois hunters who have disregarded the Wisconsin game laws, depending upon their ability to get back into their own state before warrants could be issued for their arrest, may have cause to regret the action of Gov. Yates of Illinois in issuing a requisition upon the governor of Kentucky for citizens of the Blue Grass state who are charged with violating the Illinois game laws. There has always been some question as to whether violation of the game laws constituted an offense for which a requisition would be issued, and most of the Illinois people who have killed more deer than they are entitled to, or have come across the border to hunt game without securing a Wisconsin license, have escaped arrest for this reason. But now that Governor Yates has set the example, there will be no hesitation in applying to him for requisitions in these cases.

U.S. TREASURY WAS NEVER STRONGER

The Net Ordinary Revenues Show an Increase of $20,444,485 Over Those of 1900.

Washington, Nov. 1.—Ellis H. Roberts, treasurer of the United States, in his report of the transactions of his office during the last fiscal year says that the treasury was never stronger than at the close of that period. The net ordinary revenues for the year were $537,685,337, an increase of $20,444,485 over those of 1900 which were the next highest recorded. On the side of the expenditures the total of $509,967,353 has been exceeded only four times, in 1863, 1864, 1865 and 1899. The surplus of $77,717,984 was slightly under $2,000,000 less than in 1900. Inclusive of the transactions affecting the public debt the aggregate receipts were $1,145,489,306, and the aggregate disbursements $1,077,063,052.

The monetary stock of the country received during the year an increase of upward of $88,000,000 in gold, $37,000,000 in silver coin and nearly $18,000,000 in notes and certificates. The circulation per capita was $26.50 July 1, 1900, $28 July 1, 1901, and $28.52 Oct. 1, 1901.

The redemptions of the national bank notes were the heaviest in twenty-two years, amounting to $147,486,677, an increase of $50,503,970 over 1900.

MEMORIAL FUNDS COMING IN FAST

The Whole State is Taking an Interest in the Project of Erecting McKinley Monument.

Milwaukee, Nov. 1.—The entire state is taking an interest in the project of erecting a monument to the memory of the late President McKinley at Canton, O. Henry C. Payne, the state chairman, receives hundreds of letters every mail from different parts of the commonwealth.

A point that is of interest is that the money is coming from the rank and file of the people and that it is all purely voluntary. The American "third estate" of Wisconsin, in sending in sums ranging from 10 cents to $2, is evincing its patriotism and love for the man who did so much for his country.

The Wisconsin department G. A. R. yesterday issued the following general order to its members: "The department commander is informed that posts and comrades of the Grand Army of the Republic are to be called upon by national headquarters to subscribe for a monument to our late comrade, William McKinley."

"That there may be no mistake made in the transmission and proper credits to the donors, as well as to make sure that the departments of Wisconsin gets credit for the full amount of its subscriptions, posts and comrades are advised to send all subscriptions direct to E. B. Gray, assistant adjutant general, Madison, Wis."

BEET SUGAR AS IT IS BEING MADE AT MENOMONEE FALLS FACTORY

Sugar Making Commenced with Excellent Prospects of Success—Description of the Process the Beets Undergo in Finally Reaching Sugar Stage.

Menomonee Falls, Wis., Nov. 1.—Some four years ago the first attempt at making sugar from the sugar beet was made at Menomonee Falls. A fine mill was built but the men employed to run it were not experienced sugar makers, and a complete failure was the result. The farmers in the vicinity of the Falls had raised an immense quantity of beets from the right kind of seed, and everything was all right as far as they were concerned. They lost heavily as the mill was unable to make the beets up into sugar, and the result was that thousands of bushels rotted in pits and cellars where they were being held until the factory was ready to treat them, a contingency that did not work.

Every Prospect of Success. The farmers, however, were not discouraged. They knew that their land produced the right kind of beets for sugar making, and they kept at it until they got a large Milwaukee capitalist to take the matter up. The original plant was purchased. A skillful sugar maker was brought from Germany. A fresh crop of beets was planted and yesterday, sugar making commenced with excellent prospects of success, and with everything on a strictly commercial basis.

The premature failure of this mill at Menomonee Falls put a damper on beet sugar making in Wisconsin. Thousands of farmers in the state, who had been watching anxiously for results, fought shy of sugar beets, and would not have anything further to do with beet sugar factories. Had the Menomonee mill proved a success from the start there would have been probably a dozen or two sugar factories in Wisconsin today.

Beets Begin Journey. It is interesting to watch the journey of the beets through the different processes of the factory. After being harvested by the farmer, the tubers are hauled in and weighed and then dumped into immense store sheds of the company just opposite the factory.

The real process, however, does not begin until the beets are taken from the store-shed to one end of the factory, through concrete sluiceways in which rushes a stream of water of sufficient force to carry the beets along. Entering one end of the building the beets are emptied into the buckets of a monster iron wheel,

LAST DAYS OF THE SCHLEY INQUIRY

Lieut. Harlow Denies Any Message Was Sent by Schley to Admiral Sampson.

Washington, Nov. 1.—In the Schley court of inquiry this morning Lemly stated that he had received a letter from Lieut. Harlow in which he said he could find nothing in his private diary regarding the message Schley says he sent Sampson July 2 warning the latter that the Spaniards were exhibiting signs of unusual activity in the harbor.

Lemly also said another search was made at the navy department for the signal record book of the Massachusetts, but had resulted unsatisfactorily. It is of vast importance in that it will show the signals made by Schley May 31.

With regard to the arrangements Lemly said he had arranged with Payner subject to the approval of the court that the order of presenting the arguments should be: Hanna, Parker, Rayner and Lemly. Dewey said it would be satisfactory.

Sylvester Cooville, a correspondent on the press boat Somers Smith during the war, was called in rebuttal. He testified that Sigbee did not tell those on board on May 28th that the Spaniards were not in Santiago.

FOUND WIFE BY AN ADVERTISEMENT

Fine Looking Young Woman Arrives from England in Response—To Be Married Today.

Madison, Wis., Nov. 1.—William H. Wilson of this city, who advertised for a wife through the want columns of a local paper last July, is today a happy and contented man, for yesterday he found an acceptable helpmate in Ellen Hartshorn of Staffordshire, England, a neatly dressed and good looking young woman of 25 years, with dark brown hair and hazel eyes. She arrived in Madison at noon and went at once to his home.

As they had never seen each other before the couple spent the afternoon in getting acquainted. Today both express themselves as satisfied with the outlook and as being willing to take out a marriage license this afternoon and ask the judge to set aside the law and allow them to be married at once.

Wilson, a Scotchman by birth, is about 47 years old and though a laboring man is comfortably situated in the home of his own, which he says is paid for and free from debt.

He had 1,500 replies to his advertisement. They came from almost every state in the Union and many from other countries, where the advertisement was copied in the papers as a novelty. He says he has had an offer from an enterprising matrimonial bureau of Chicago for the letters, but though the figure was a tempting one, he refused it. He has also a large collection of photographs.

WILL NOT CALL AN EXTRA SESSION

Governor La Follette Back in Madison to Stay—He Will Be at His Office Every Day.

Madison, Wis., Nov. 1.—Governor La Follette said today that he was not considering the question of calling an extra session of the legislature for any purpose and at present had no intention of doing so.

La Follette leaders here say that they have not recently discussed the advisability of calling an extra session with the governor, and express the opinion that none will be called. One of them said:

"What would be the use of calling an extra session? The legislature would not pass any general taxation measure that would be acceptable to this governor. In my judgment there will be no extra session."

Governor Robert M. La Follette is back in Madison to stay. Today all the personal effects which were taken to Dr. Fox's farm in Oregon were brought back to the city and the occupancy mansion was prepared for occupancy during the winter months. The governor is greatly improved in health and feels now that he is on the road to complete recovery. He announces his intention of being at his office every day from now on.

CARTOONS CAUSE HEARST TROUBLE

Chicago, Ill., Nov. 1.—When Judge Haney opened court at 2 o'clock yesterday afternoon he issued an order for the appearance of the following persons connected with Hearst's Chicago American, to show cause why they should not be punished for contempt:

William R. Hearst, proprietor; Andrew M. Lawrence, managing editor; Homer Davenport, cartoonist; S. S. Carvalho, general manager; John C. Eastman, business manager; Arthur L. Clarke, news editor; C. B. Fluke, city editor; J. Frank Allen, assistant city editor; Clare A. Briggs, cartoonist; James O'Shaughnessy, Jr., reporter, and H. S. Canfield, reporter.

The proceedings in contempt are based on attacks on the court in connection with the hearing in the quo warranto proceedings against the gas company, in which Judge Haney rendered a decision last Monday dismissing the proceedings.

The contempt proceedings are based on the common law. The privilege exercised by Judge Haney is given by the common law, and statutes cannot take it away. No definite punishment is fixed, and it is entirely within the discretion of the court.

MISS STONE IS WELL AND SAFE

She Is Living with Her Companion in a Turkish Village.

NEWS IS CERTAIN

Mussulman Boy Will Negotiate the Ransom for Bulgaria's Hidden Brigands.

TURKEY WILL RESIST

Sofia, Nov. 1.—United States Consul General Dickinson leaves at once for Samakov, the missionary headquarters, where he will be within communicating distance of the brigands in the event that a reward should be offered or a ransom again demanded. A man who is on friendly terms with the brigands has arrived here from Dubinitza, a frontier town. He brought a report that Miss Stone and Mrs. Talika are both well and safely sheltered in a Turkish village on the border in the house of a certain Turkish bey, who is an accomplice of and friendly to the brigands.

To Negotiate Ransom.

The messenger informed Mr. Dickinson that this bey will negotiate the ransom of Miss Stone and her companion. This report is probably intended to divert pressure from the Macedonian leaders. The Poshta, the organ of the Macedonian committee, in an editorial today threatens retaliation against "our religious renegade countrymen," meaning the Bulgarian converts, should the United States hold either the Bulgarian government or the Macedonian committee responsible for the abduction. The missionaries are also threatened with revenge.

Brigands Maintain Demands.

Washington, Nov. 1.—Despite the efforts of American officials and missionaries to convince the brigands holding Miss Stone that it is impossible to raise the ransom of $110,000, the latter have thus far declined to reduce their demand by a single dollar. While this is a discouraging feature of the case, the fact that negotiations are still in progress gives hope that the abductors will finally agree to release the woman upon the payment of the $65,000 on hand. Spencer Eddy, the secretary of the American Legation at Constantinople, has been advised that there is no likelihood of any considerable addition being made to the amount collected. Through the missionaries who are in communication with the brigands, this information has been conveyed to them. It was stated by a high official here that the Turkish government has given assurances that until Miss Stone is liberated no military movement will be made against the brigands.

Turkey Will Resist.

Constantinople, Nov. 1.—The Turkish government is already preparing to resist the anticipated demand of the United States for repayment of the ransom necessary to secure the release of Miss Ellen M. Stone, the abducted American missionary. The porte repudiates all responsibility for the kidnapping of Miss Stone and maintains that the United States has no claim against Turkey and that, therefore, the latter is justified in refusing to recoup the United States for the money expended in her rescue.

LAW STUDENTS CUT FROM SWING-OUT

Atmosphere in the Vicinity of College of Law at Madison Deeply Tinged with Blue.

Madison, Wis., Nov. 1.—(Special)—The senior law students at the state university are up in arms over the fact that they were "cut out" by the committee which had in charge the "senior swing out" Wednesday night. The affair was arranged by the "Hill" students, or "Litts," and the laws were omitted when the invitations were sent out. Notwithstanding the omission, some of the laws, with their ladies, arrayed themselves in their best clothes and went to the swing-out; that is, they went as far as the outside door, where the young man in charge informed them politely but firmly that they could not be admitted.

Yesterday the atmosphere in the vicinity of the college of law was deeply tinged with blue. After class an indignation meeting was held, at which a committee of three was appointed to ascertain whether the slight put upon the laws was the work of the committee on arrangements alone, or whether the entire senior class was responsible for the insult. The committee is instructed to carry the matter to the faculty.

The senior "swing-out" which has usually been held in the spring, has always been arranged by the "Litts" but the laws have always been invited heretofore.

WILL REFUND ALL C. M. & ST. P. BONDS

All Prior Lien and Divisional Bonds Will Be Called In Before 1926.

Some time between January 1, 1902 and July 1, 1926, all of the Milwaukee and St. Paul prior lien and divisional bonds will have to be refunded. The general mortgage will then be made an absolute first lien on all the company's property of every kind. As early as 1905 the bonds covering the River division, the La Crosse and Prairie du Chien division, the Mineral Point division and the east end of the Iowa and Dakota division become due and these lines are among the most profitable owned by the St. Paul.

The above divisions are covered by the consolidated mortgage, the bonds under which bear 7 per cent interest, but as they are exchangeable into preferred stock, most of the bonds will probably be retired before maturity. Any bond of the Chicago, Milwaukee & St. Paul Railroad company is, however, as good as gold, and it is probable that no general mortgage bonds will eventually sell on a 5 per cent basis or better.

The general mortgage of the Chicago, Milwaukee & St. Paul road is limited to $150,000,000. The directors are allowed to determine the rate of interest which these bonds shall bear, but it must not exceed 5 per cent per annum. The first issue of bonds under this mortgage bore 4 per cent interest, but subsequent issues bear 3 1/2 per cent. The former, known as "series A" bonds, of which there are $24,000,000 outstanding sell on a 3.60 per cent basis, and the latter, known as "series B," bonds, of which there are $10,070,000 outstanding sell on a 3.35 per cent basis.

Entertained Their friends

Mr. and Mrs. Norman Carle entertained about forty-five of their friends very handsomely at their home, 360 St. Lawrence place, last evening. Invitations were issued for a six thirty o'clock supper and the elegant collation was faultlessly served at small tables. The pleasant parlors were decorated with choice cut flowers. After the supper the evening was pleasantly spent in playing progressive euchre, the handsome prizes being won by Mrs. F. H. Jackman and A. J. Harris. The occasion was one of pure pleasure and when the time for goodnights came each guest departed with the feeling that it had indeed been a delightful privilege to enjoy the hospitality of Mr. and Mrs. Carle.

MCKINLEY MEMORIAL OFFERING

The following is the form of subscription blanks sent out by the National Memorial association.

The undersigned, residents of _____ State of Wisconsin, hereby subscribe the sum of _____ dollars for the purpose of erecting a suitable memorial to the memory of our late lamented president, William McKinley, in accordance with the plans of the McKinley National Memorial association which contemplates a monument at Canton, and a suitable memorial at Washington.

THE LATEST.

While Dowle appears to have a corner on Chicago it is left to T. J. Sheldon of Denver to corral the wild and woolly west. Mr. Sheldon is the publisher of a paper called "Christian." In a late issue he says:

"Mental healing is a science which will yet sweep the whole earth. Its very simplicity is one reason why some people think it is a mystery. I hold the thought of success for you until my thought takes possession of your mind; I hold the thought of health for you until my thought fills your mind and body. This is mental healing in a nutshell. It is all based on telepathy or the transference of thought. My own thought is active, regenerative, and redeeming my own body. The resurrection from the dead is an actual fact. The body which I was carrying around two years ago has been thrown away. I shall continue to throw away until the body which remains is perpetual youth."

All he wants is a dollar and a case. He has a use for the dollar and he claims the ability by thought vibration to not only cure the ills of body and mind, but to restore and maintain perpetual youth. He says:

"I have banished time from my mind, and am in the vibration of the sun the center of all life. I am neither old nor young, and am building for myself a permanent body which will be in perpetual vibration with the spiritual center."

He has discovered the "Eldorado," the fountain of life, the happy climax, where old age is simply a vision, a dream that is never realized.

He says that he and his wife are so blended in one body that oral speech is not necessary, that they read each other's thoughts and perfectly understand each other. There is nothing very uncommon about that. It is easy to find families almost anywhere that are not bubbling over with sociability. The husband has no trouble to tell what his wife is thinking about by the frown on her face, and the wife reads the husband's countenance like an open book.

Mr. Sheldon has various and sundry books and publications for sale and is said to be doing a thriving business. Whether he will establish a Zion out on the plains of Colorado is not stated but his fertile brain seems equal to almost any emergency.

Why intelligent people should be carried away with this sort of hallucination, is always a mystery. It is true that the mind has much to do with the ills of the body, and that many people shorten life by constant worry and anxiety. It is possible for minds in this condition to cultivate almost any disease that fancy suggests, and to suffer and die an untimely death as the result. The presence of a tactful physician in a home frequently dispels imaginary disease, and invalids are restored to health by the magic influence of a helpful word.

If Mr. Sheldon, a thousand miles away, can impart the same confidence he may accomplish some good, but when he attributes it to Divine power, it borders on sacrilege.

INTERNATIONAL TRADE RELATIONS.

Sidney Brooks a noted English writer, contributes to the November Atlantic an exhaustive forecast of international trade relations. He says that the rapid strides made by America, in forging to the front is not only a menace to foreign nations, but it affords the all-absorbing topic of conversation and discussion, and that while England is comparatively neutral, because of close relations and her dependence upon the United States for food supplies, that all Europe is intensely in earnest, and that a combination will be formed at no distant day to project home industries and drive out American competition.

He claims that the attitude of this government toward China is significant, and construed by European powers as selfish in the extreme. That while both England and America favor keeping the Celestial empire intact, that the leading European nations are eager for its dismemberment, believing that in the partition a liberal slice could be secured for each, thus giving them exclusive territory, in what is now an open market.

Mr. Brooks is an impartial writer and appears to treat the question from a fair and unprejudiced standpoint. He believes that the interests of England and America are so closely allied that the time may come when they will join hands against the combined European powers, not in a contest for supremacy of arms, but in the interests of commerce, and the intelligent advancement of civilization. He argues that the climax will come in 1903, when the European nations hope to have their plans perfected for concert of action, and suggests that America with its rush and independence, may do well to investigate the situation carefully. He thinks that the only safeguard is reciprocity and that America will gain more by showing a friendly spirit, and a disposition to conciliate, than by forging ahead regardless of consequences.

There has never been a time in the history of this nation when wise and conservative judgment, as well as tact and rare diplomacy, was more urgently demanded.

The nations of the world are in an era of revolution, produced by the steady march of progress. New responsibilities are crowding rapidly to the front. America is no longer a sea girt island. Her flag marks possession beyond the seas, and the encroachment is a new and startling revelation.

The nation possessed the wisdom and humanity to make these advancements and her new possessions are undisputed. It remains for congress and the executive to demonstrate ability that the world will recognize and respect, to so adjust the nation to its new relations that justice at home will be maintained, and justice abroad fully recognized. The responsibility is great, but the nation has always been equal to emergencies, and it will not fail in diplomacy.

COUNTY SUPERVISORS.

The last legislature passed a law providing that county boards at the November meeting should elect a county supervisor of assessment, whose term of office shall run for three years, with a per diem salary of $4.00 per day.

The duty of this new officer is in the nature of a superintendency. He is to have supervision of town and city assessors, seeing that they comply with the law, and that justice is maintained in each locality, by a uniformity of valuation.

The office is important, and if the right men are selected, and the provisions of the law properly carried out, results will be helpful and cause for complaint reduced to a minimum. If this office had been established a year ago, it is doubtful if the Janesville Water Company, and New Gas Light Company, would have been called upon for the largely increased assessment. The former is bonded for $175,000, so that the stock which was assessed simply represents the stockholders' equity beyond that amount.

The object of the county assessor is to aid the town and city assessors in equalizing property, and to prevent injustice to both individuals and corporations.

W. J. McIntyre is a candidate for the position in Rock county. Mr. McIntyre is familiar with values, and his long residence in the county renders him an excellent man for the position. The board will make no mistake in securing his services.

Congress will convene in a month. If possible the Schley investigation should continue until Thanksgiving. November is a dull month for journalism, and with Schley off the boards, the field will be destitute of news, unless Miss Stone and Pat Crowe continue to figure. If the Washington court has due consideration the session will be prolonged. There are only a few more admirals to kill off.

A subscription list for the McKinley Memorial fund may be found at The Gazette counting room. Other towns and cities throughout the state are already reporting progress, and Janesville can hardly afford to be behind. The paper will be pleased to receive subscriptions of any amount and forward the same to headquarters.

If Governor La Follette will throw open the doors of the executive chamber, employ a secretary to look after his correspondence, meet all comers as citizens of the commonwealth, and treat them with uniform courtesy, results will surprise him, to say the least.

The statement of the bank examiner, just published, shows that the state is in a prosperous condition. The natural resources of Wisconsin rival any state in the union. With its level headed conservative constituency it is a most desirable state for a home.

Beloit and the Kansas University played football the other day, with a failure to score on either side, but more remarkable still, no bones were broken or players disabled. The game appears to have been tame all around.

The race war in Washington Parish near New Orleans, is another stain upon civilization. The race problem is the most perplexing of any that confronts the nation today, and the solution is not in sight.

Some men aspire to greatness, while others buy a newspaper and manufacture it.

General Miles has bought another dress suit, and joined the ranks of the anti-canteen shouters. The general has changed front. He is equal to almost any emergency from canned beef to canteen.

Tammany is supporting Shepard and betting on Lowe. There's nothing like playing even with the game, and Tammany never fails to play that way.

No more Halloween for a year. Ain't you sorry?

PRESS COMMENT.

Racine News: Sir Thomas has adopted the motto of Columbus and will "Sail on, sail on and on!"

Milwaukee Journal: While the Wisconsin editors are at Hot Springs they will have an opportunity to take a mud bath. Some of 'em had before they went away.

Marquette Eagle: If the dismissal of Murphy will make Mr. La Follette governor of the whole people instead of a faction, it will not have been in vain.

Richland Center Observer: Being asked by a companion while out driving if she believed in palmistry, a Kansas girl is said to have answered "If I could see the lines in one hand I could foretell a pleasant drive."

Oshkosh Northwestern: General Miles in his annual report, declares himself as opposed to the restoration of the army canteen. Whatever else may be said of General Miles it is evident that he is still considerable of a politician.

Fond du Lac Reporter: It is said that President Roosevelt is to ride a Wisconsin horse, and that he has placed an order with a Janesville man for its purchase. It is better to ride a Wisconsin horse than a Wisconsin republican hobby.

La Crosse Republican and Leader: One noticeable distinction between the president of the United States and the governor of Wisconsin is that the former has frequent occasion for the counsel of Hon. John C. Spooner Strange, isn't it?

Council Bluffs Nonpareil: There is a newspaper in Kansas whose motto is "Lie steal, drink and swear," and it is thus explained by the editor: "When you lie, let it be down to pleasant dreams; when you steal, let it be from immoral associates; when you drink, let it be pure water; when you swear, let it be that you will patronize your home paper, pay your subscription, and not send your job work away from home."

Green Bay Gazette: According to some of the administration crowd the qualities which make Colonel Jerre C. Murphy a flat failure as private secretary to the governor eminently qualify him as an editor and they with pessimistic Jerre returned to editorial work. So long as such ideas prevail it will be a difficult matter to place Wisconsin's press upon the plane which all well-intentioned people desire to see it occupy.

Whitewater Gazette: Last fall the stalwart republicans in Wisconsin were strong enough to have defeated the La Follette men if they had had one candidate instead of half a dozen. The stalwarts are stronger now than they were then, but not strong enough to admit of any divisions. If a candidate comes up at the proper time who can command the entire strength of the stalwarts he will be elected. The first district should settle the matter easily and Whitehead could be nominated in short order if it was left to his district to make a decision.

Or Anti-Capital Punishment Law. Do the people of our state fully realize that under our unwise anti-capital punishment law, if Czolgosz had assassinated President McKinley in Wisconsin he could only have been sentenced to life imprisonment, and perhaps some sentimental governor would have released him after a few years' confinement? Do the people of Wisconsin approve of such a law? We believe that ninety-nine one-hundredths of all the people in Wisconsin would insist upon hanging Czolgosz had he killed McKinley in Wisconsin. And, further, we believe that of the 80,000,000 people in the United States, at least 75,000,000 would say that the wretched assassin who only a few minutes before his execution declared, "I do not regret my crime," should be immediately executed as an example to all similar offenders.—Evening Wisconsin.

GLOBE SIGHTS.

Indisposed people blame everything but their appetites.

Whisky is never too old to drink. Neither are some men.

The house that Jack built in these times is usually put up by the girl's father.

If yellow is a symptom of biliousness what a terrible condition the trees must be in!

Somehow when women cross a muddy street, their skirts never look as well as those in the posters.

We expect by spring to see school children running after a wagon load of potatoes trying to steal one, just as they used to steal apples.—Atchison Globe.

REFLECTIONS OF A BACHELOR.

A woman does not search for truth in her looking glass or in her own photograph.

A man can hate longer than he can regret; he can regret longer than he can forgive.

At election time the devil takes his vacation and lets other people up in the world do his work.

Most people would know that they were worse than they are if they didn't think they were better than they are.—New York Press.

RAISE THE PAY OF RAILWAY MEN

NORTHWESTERN ROAD GRANTS A GOOD INCREASE.

Conductors, Brakemen and Baggage-men Benefited—Advance in Scale
Will Average About $10 a Month—Official Order as Promulgated Went Into Effect This Morning.

Today thousands of employees of the Chicago and Northwestern railway system will reap the benefits of an increase in wages. The increase will mean a monthly expenditure by the company of hundreds of thousands of dollars, and nearly all the trainmen in the employ of the corporation will be benefited. Beginning this morning the advance in the schedule goes into effect.

The rise in wages directly affects the conductors, brakemen and baggage-men. The action of the company is a direct result of the conferences held between the officials and the leaders of the employees' organizations. The demands of the men were finally conceded by the company officers to be just and the decision to grant the advance was adopted.
The meetings were entirely friendly and the question was discussed calmly. At no time was there any sign of a disagreement.

Wages Rise Pro Rata

The advance is regulated according to the present wages earned. In the case of conductors, who receive the highest salaries of the three divisions of employees affected, the increase will be proportionally larger than the brakemen or baggage-men. The percentage of increase has not been made public, but officials are authority for the statement that the amount will average about $10 a month.

The prosperous condition of the Northwestern company's business brought about the request of the men for more money. For several months the trainmen have been worked hard to take care of the heavy traffic and many of the conductors, brakemen and baggage-men have worked many hours a day over time. It was this condition together with the fact that instead of falling off business seemed to be growing weekly, that induced men to lay the matter before their employers.

Conductors and Brakemen

The conductors on the big railroad systems are well paid, but they also suffer heavy responsibilities. They are responsible for the safety of the trains from the time they leave the starting point until they arrive at the terminal. The men receive salaries of from $100 to $175 a month, according to the importance of the run and the class of the train.

Brakemen are not so well paid.
Their monthly wages average between $55 and $80. The baggage-men receive about the same compensation, although their position calls for not only manual labor but brain work as well. All of these men will be better paid in the future.

SPECIAL SERVICES ON ALL SAINTS' DAY

Today is All Saints' day and its observance is marked with special ceremonies in the Catholic and Episcopal churches. In the Catholic church it is a holy day of obligation, one of the most sacred of the year.
Worshippers gathered at St. Mary's church at 5:30 o'clock and at 9 o'clock this morning and at both times mass was celebrated by the Rev. Father W. A. Goebel. At St. Patrick's church mass was held at 5 o'clock and again at ten this morning. Dean E. M. McGinnity being assisted by Rev. Father J. J. Collins.

At the Episcopal churches there were morning and evening services.
At Christ church there was morning prayer, address and celebration of the holy communion at 9 o'clock and there will be evening prayer and address at 7 o'clock. Rev. J. A. M.
Richey conducted special services at Trinity church.

Tomorrow will be All Souls' day and will be observed with masses in the Catholic churches.

Freight House Looming Up

Contractors Shearer and Peters are hustling along the work on the new St. Paul freight house. The west wall is up nearly to the top of the window cases and about all the frames are in place. On the main street side of the building where the platform and wagon track is to be the ground has been filled in to bring the wagon track up to the required level, caused by the walls being nine inches too high. The switch tracks in the rear of the station will have to be depressed several inches to bring them to the required level. The station will be all completed before the extreme cold weather sets in and ready for the winter's trade.

FINAL CONTEST FOR DENISON CUP

Decisive Football Game Between High School Teams at Athletic Park Tomorrow.

The great football game in the High School interclass for the Denison championship cup will be played at Athletic park tomorrow afternoon when the senior and junior teams will meet in spirited contest. The cup will be won by one of these two teams as both the Sophomore and Freshmen teams have been defeated by them.
The seniors have already defeated the Juniors once and feel confident of another victory tomorrow. Of course if their expectations prove true, tomorrow's game will practically end all contest for the Denison cup although several minor games are still to be played in the series. If the Seniors win tomorrow's game, they will also win the school championship and the cup but if on the other hand, the Juniors are victorious, tomorrow's tie will exist between the Seniors and Juniors and a third and deciding game will be necessary.

The Juniors are determined to defeat their rivals if possible and as the feeling of friendly rivalry is very keen between the two classes it will easily be seen that the coming game is one of unusual interest. Large crowds of rooters will be present to cheer for the teams and there will be plenty of excitement.

The game also promises to be a splendid exhibition of football. Both class teams are strong and well matched and both play fast football.
The determination to win will inspire all the players, and the game will unquestionably be the best in the series. A large attendance is expected. The classes will be represented by the following teams:

Leaf Tobacco Notes.

The rain of Thursday morning will be of great benefit to the farmers in curing out the present crop of tobacco. In many cases the leaves were about two-thirds cured leaving the balance of the leaf in such a condition that a hard freeze would congeal the sap in the balance of the stem and cause what is known as fat stem. The dry hot weather along back has been very much against the proper curing of the leaf and the rain yesterday morning will do much to remedy this trouble.

In a good many sections of the county where leaf is grown the farmers report having a fair crop considering the many draw backs they have had to contend with. While the crop is not up to the average of other years in many instances it is far from being the failure it is pictured out to be. Many crops are curing out far beyond what was expected and bid fair to be of good quality. In almost every case, however, the leaf is not as large or long as it should be, and the majority of it will not be over twenty inches in length.

The demand for tobacco in the eastern markets is very strong and all the leaf that is up to a certain standard will bring a fair price. One thing that will help the grower to sell the present crop is the care taken in preparing it for market. All the fillers and trash should be sorted out and the remainder put up in neat bundles. Another thing that helps sell a crop is the quality of the paper used for bundles. The looks of the crop is very much improved by the use of a better paper, which costs a little more than the ordinary paper now used but the extra number of sheets in a bundle makes up for the extra cost. It also makes a much more attractive package and secures more consideration from the buyer.

Very little of the present crop is being brought up by local dealers. They prefer to wait until the crop has been stripped and is in the bundle before buying.

The U. S. Tobacco Journal has the following report of a case in which J. L. and M. F. Greene, of this city, were the plaintiffs:

Last Monday the supreme court of the state rendered a final decision in a case which has been pending for a long time. J. L. and M. F. Greene had sold about $3,000 worth of tobacco to Amos B. Hostetter, on the strength of the latter's financial rating by a commercial agency. All Mr. Hostetter's creditors placed their claims in the hands of Mr. Fender, smith as trustee. The Greens had not been paid for their tobacco, so they brought suit against the trustee of the general creditors for the amount of their claim, alleging the fraudulent representations of Hostetter. The decision of the lower court was sustained and a final decree awarded to the defendant.

The daily newspapers during the past week have been giving lots of space to the tobacco trade both in this country and England, and the way they have settled upon the plans of the contesting interests indicates that the writers think they know considerably about the question. The subject involves the reorganization of the Havana Commercial company and its amalgamation with the Universal Tobacco company which in turn is said to have formed an offensive and defensive alliance with the recently organized Imperial Tobacco company and that these interests are preparing to engage in a bitter commercial war upon the Consolidated Tobacco company and its subsidiary corporations for the control of both the English and the American markets.

Deafness Cannot Be Cured by local application, as they cannot reach the diseased portion of the ear. There is only one way to cure deafness, and that is by constitutional remedies. Deafness is caused by an inflamed condition of the mucous lining of the Eustachian Tube. When the tube is inflamed, it swells and closes off the passage, and when it is entirely closed, deafness is the result, and unless the inflammation can be taken out and this tube restored to its normal condition, hearing will be destroyed forever. Nine cases out of ten are caused by catarrh, which is nothing but an inflamed condition of the mucous surfaces.

We will give One Hundred Dollars for any case of Deafness (caused by catarrh) that can not be cured by Hall's Catarrh Cure. Send for circulars, from J. C. GRENEY & CO., Toledo, O.

FIGHT BETWEEN A DEER AND A MAN

Brayton W. Smith, of Jacksonville, Ill., a former resident who will be remembered by many Janesville people, had an exciting experience with a deer while in camp at Long Lake this past summer, when he tells in a recent letter to C. S. Jackson, Mr. Smith and his niece, Miss Louise Glasner of the First National bank of Chicago, were enjoying a boat ride on the lake one evening and had just turned toward camp when they saw a four year old buck, weighing two hundred pounds as they afterwards found, about half a mile from them, swimming across the lake.

The young quarter breed, who was in the boat, rowed fast enough to cut the deer off from shore but was used up by that time and so Mr. Smith took the oars. After fifteen minutes rowing alone, Mr. Glasner took one of the oars and the two men divided the work. The guide stood in the prow with steel rod and cast for the deer's head, lost one spoon and then took the other rod. The fight between the deer and the men was a hard one and lasted an hour but finally the conquered deer floated by the side of the boat. Mr. Smith says that his niece was a funny boatswain. She would cry when they were close upon the deer and when he was getting away she grew as excited as the men in the chase and called orders to them to urge them on. After the fight was over and the deer slain, the members of the party had time to realize what a narrow escape they had had. It certainly was a wonder that the deer did not turn on the boat and become the aggressive party in the fight, in which case the entire party would doubtless have been drowned.

Mrs. O'Brien, mother of L. C. O'Brien, has purchased the Luggs property in the First ward and is moving into her new home.

ELECTRIC LINE NOTES

Surveyors or what is supposed to be an electric line to connect the cities of Milwaukee, Beloit and Janesville reached East Troy last Wednesday. They started work at Milwaukee and run their route to Hale's Corner, thence to Muskego, Chamberlain, Mukwonago, Phantom Lake, Lake Beulah, East Troy Lake, following up the Beloit grade all along the line and through East Troy to Troy, where they continued their line to Elkhorn, striking near the Courtney House. However, they also turned off this route in the town of LaFayette and made a survey so as to take in Lauderdale Lakes, going from there to Elkhorn and thence to Delavan Lake and thus connect with the route for which franchises have been granted at Elkhorn, Beloit and Janesville.—Delavan Republican.

The people at Blaine, Capron and Poplar Grove are all jubilant over the prospects of an electric road. A meeting was held at Poplar Grove last evening to discuss plans with the officials of the company, which are building a road from Rockford, Beloit, Janesville and Delavan. Their branch line from Rockford to Belvidere is nearly finished, and the last strand of trolley wire was put up at the railroad crossing and State street, at Belvidere, last Saturday, and the rails are down as far as the city limits. From Belvidere it is proposed to build a line to Poplar Grove, and continue north to MacNally's corner at Blaine, then east to Blaine, north to the Stone school house, then to Sharon and on to Delavan. It is hoped that the project will go through without interruption.—Sharon Reporter.

Proposed Tioga Road

Strange to say, the depot at Tioga is located on a tract half a mile from any highway, so that getting to and from the station can be done only by driving across a farmer's fields. The town board of Darien has so far failed to lay out a road, and now the citizens in the vicinity have taken the matter in hand. A petition is being signed to have a street laid from Fairfield road through to the depot, and thence along the highway sixty rods, thence south to connect with the Sharon road, in all about a mile. The principal obstacle will be the building of a bridge over Turtle creek near the Fairfield road. All the land required for the new highway belongs to Mr. Woodward and son, and we understand that both have signed the petition. As the train service is now arranged, Tioga is the embarking and stopping point for passengers on the Janesville line in the territory extending as far east as Delavan, and some arrangement to enable conveyances to reach that station is badly needed.

To Welcome New Pastor. This evening will be devoted by members of the First M. E. church to welcoming their new pastor and presiding elder and their ladies. The reception, which is to be given in the church parlors in honor of Rev. and Mrs. James Churn and Rev. and Mrs. E. S. McChesney, will be tendered under the auspices of the Ladies' Aid society. The reception will be informal, the receiving hours beginning at 7:30 o'clock. The church has been handsomely decorated in honor of the event and light refreshments will be served. Members from other churches will be among the guests at the reception and an invitation is extended to all friends of the church.

Fire Started by Robbers. Larned, Kas., Nov. 1.—Shell's big livery barn was burned, together with twenty-five head of horses and a large lot of buggies and harness. At the same time the Santa Fe railroad safe was blown to pieces with dynamite and the depot badly wrecked. It is believed the safe blowers set the livery stable on fire in order to attract the crowd to another part of town while they worked on the Santa Fe safe. Over a dozen shots were exchanged between the robbers and citizens who rushed to the depot. In the darkness and confusion the robbers escaped. They secured no booty.

Dr. Mary Walker Elected. Oswego, N. Y., Nov. 1.—Dr. Mary Walker was elected from membership in the Woman's Suffrage Association at the convention. She offered her fee, but it was returned to her and she was elected from the building. The ground for refusal was her attack on Miss Anthony, in which she declared that a sixteenth amendment was not necessary. Mrs. Mariana W. Chapman of Brooklyn was elected president.

Beat and Rob Old Farmer. Appleton, Wis., Nov. 1.—Two masked men entered the house of P. J. Gilmore, an aged farmer residing four miles from this city, pounded him into insensibility and secured a bank certificate of $100 and $86 in currency. Mr. Gilmore has lived alone in a small house on the Center road for many years. He reports having seen the two men pass his home earlier in the day.

Murdered by Yaqui Indians. Tucson, Ariz., Nov. 1.—Joe Ramado, the owner of a large ranch near Guaymas, was assaulted by a band of Yaqui Indians and killed. The Yaquis raided the ranch, stealing the horses and corn. They visited several other ranches, and it is reported that they killed other ranchers. Almost every day during the past week raids have been made and the ranches along the river are almost deserted.

PUT TO DEATH BY MOB.

Angry Citizens at Hodgenville, Ky. Visited Vigilance on Colored Man. Hodgenville, Ky., Nov. 1.—A mob of fifty, or seventy-five determined citizens came down upon this little town about 2 o'clock and took from the jail Silas Esters, a negro, charged with forcing Granville Ward, a 15-year-old boy living near Upton, to commit a crime, and strung him to the court house steps. So quietly and systematically did the mob go about its work that the citizens of the town were in ignorance of the existence of a mob until the negro was in its clutches.

The citizens composing the lynching party approached the jail, and, upon their demand, the keys were surrendered to them. The cell in which the negro was confined was entered and the noose was adjusted about his neck. He was dragged down the jail stairs and out into the street. He managed to slip the noose from his neck and made a break for liberty. The mob, crazed with anger, made after the negro, howling and firing at him with guns and pistols. The negro fell when about 100 yards from the jail, a number of shots having taken effect. The noose was again placed about his neck, and he was dragged to the courthouse and swung to the topmost steps.

The mob was formed in the neighborhood of the crime. When the work of lynching the negro had been accomplished the members of the mob quietly dispersed and went to their homes.

DID THE NURSE KILL?

Charges of Murder Against Jane Tappan, at Barnstable, Mass.

Barnstable, Mass., Nov. 1.—Under a charge of murdering Mrs. Mary Gibbs by poisoning Jane Tappan, a professional nurse, is locked up in jail here. She was arrested at Amherst, N. H., and after appearing in the police court at Nashua, N. H., where she protested her innocence, she decided to come here without requisition papers.

Miss Tappan nursed four members of the Davis family at Cataumet, Mass., last summer, and all four died. Her arrest followed a report made by Prof. Wood, an analytical chemist, who examined the stomachs of two of the supposed victims, that he found traces of poison. The persons nursed by Miss Tappan whose illness proved fatal were Mr. and Mrs. Alden P. Davis of Cataumet, Mass., and their daughters, Mrs. Harry Gordon of Chicago and Mrs. Mary Gibbs of Cataumet. The formal charge against Miss Tappan is based on the last named case.

On Monday evening Mr. Cummins will participate in a final rally in this city, which will include a parade and a torch-light demonstration.

Crackmen Use Explosives to Rob Two Western Banks.

Des Moines, Ia., Nov. 1.—The bank of Arispe was entered by two robbers, who blew open the safe with nitroglycerin, knocking out a portion of the front of the one-story brick building. New Troops for Philippines. Washington, Nov. 1.—Gen. Miles recommended that the Eleventh cavalry and the Twenty-eighth infantry be sent to the Philippines. Two regiments are all that the secretary desires to order to the Philippines at present. These regiments are to take the place of regiments in the Philippines to be brought home which have been serving three years or more, and the terms of enlistment of the men about to expire. The order will not interfere with the department's plans for reducing the army in the Philippines. The regiments which are to be returned as soon as the transports are ready are the Fourth, Seventeenth, Twentieth and Twenty-second infantry. These regiments have been longest in the islands.
